Experience the charm of a by-gone era in Maryborough, Queensland. Settled in 1847, Maryborough is one of Queensland's oldest provincial cities and is located three hours north of Brisbane with a population of 26,000.

Monday: Arrive by Tilt Train or bus and meet your tour leader and "Mary Heritage", the town's ambassador in period costume, at the station. You will begin your tour by going to the Wook-koo Story Walk in an air-conditioned coach and walking through the sculptures, water feature and unique artworks. Then on to the Arkana Motel where you will be staying in air-conditioned luxuriously furnished rooms. Enjoy a welcome drink and dinner in the licensed restaurant.

Tuesday: After breakfast participate in a guided walking tour with "Mary Heritage" of the Maryborough city centre. Enjoy morning tea at Mary Delicious – an old time lolly shop and cafe. Visit the Wharf Street Heritage Precinct which includes the Customs House Museum, Bond Store Museum, Maryborough Military Museum and the local Art Gallery. Enjoy free time over lunch in the heart of Maryborough. After lunch take a guided bus tour of the city finishing with afternoon tea & tour of "Mavisbank" a colonial home.

Wednesday: After breakfast take a guided bus tour of Hervey Bay and surrounding areas. Take a walk through the Arkarra Tea Gardens finishing with morning tea in one of the bures. We'll take a drive along the esplanade and visit the Marina. Enjoy lunch at one of Hervey Bay's Clubs. Visit Brooklyn House, a beautifully restored 1890's Queenslander in Howard, for a tour and afternoon tea. Return to the Arkana Motel for dinner and a trivia night in the restaurant.

Thursday: This morning we visit the Maryborough Heritage Markets. Take a trip on the Mary Ann Steam train through Queens Park and then board the "The Mary" & enjoy a River Cruise down the Mary River with morning tea. Enjoy free time over lunch in the heart of Maryborough. Visit Brennan & Geraghty's Store Museum & a local antique shop and tour Rosehill on the River, Maryborough's oldest home, partaking in a wine and cheese tasting.

Friday: Visit the Brolga Theatre, Maryborough's $12 million entertainment complex, for a backstage tour with coffee/tea and bickies before for your return trip home.
